You've heard it before: "You should always pick the lesser of two evils." Whether you're currently at the mercy of a tyrannical boss, a dangerous coworker, or a broken date, when you're given a choice, you should try your best to pick the lesser of two evils. And if that choice leaves you disappointed and poor, it's up to you to find a way to undo your mistake and to find out what happens to the third option. The only problem is, in all your choices lies an error that could have been prevented. That's exactly how your life has turned out for you in these days; a combination of chance and choice that can't be undone, with the lives of everyone you care about in your grasp. It's up to you to realize your error and undo it. A Tale of Corrupters: Meet Teru, an average office worker who's not half bad at his job, but he receives a call in the middle of the night from a mysterious caller. That call sets into motion a chain of events that sees him lose all sense of time and reason, pursued by a demanding man who seems to offer Teru some kind of big-time opportunity. And Teru sees the way things end up, and finds himself asking a question: "Why?" 5 Different Ending Options (27+ CGs) A Game that will keep you engaged for months due to its multiple endings, with a warm nostalgic feel due to its setting. You get to see the story of a young man who gains a greater understanding of friendship and relationships in his life. You'll also see some of the most romantic and heartwarming scenes that will make you feel warm inside. CLASSIFICATION: This game contains content such as: non-binaural voice acting, mild violence, cursing The funny side of the story will touch you, and once you find yourself laughing out loud, you will need to find yourself doing so for a very long time. If you're looking to find the game with a more serious tone, but still relatable to the genre, maybe this game is your next mobile download! Building your own house and fighting off armies of spiders is the dream of every homeowner. But would you be able to reach it? Keep fighting and be quick to dash away from spiders to avoid being their lunch! Take on the role of a white line spider and kill other spiders with your gun. Build your own house to make it more shelter and make your enemies come in for a cookie! With 20 different spiders in the game and upgradable houses, you'll have to be quick to catch the rest of them and defend yourself from other spiders in the area. When they come close, hit them for more spider eggs and finish them off by shooting them. Collect spider eggs to enhance your gun to increase the number of shots you can take, and to equip other weapons for stronger results. To get more money to buy better weapons, kill more spiders and build better houses that you can rest in. Build your web and don't be afraid to upgrade your home! 20 different spider types, collecting spider eggs, sporing in the field, and using upgraded weapons Multiplayer Vs AI and online Vs AI modes Simple control design, made for casual gamer to experience Fulfil your spider killer instincts Durable design that is both satisfying and quick to play Well, despite the fact that my cat has just managed to jump on the screen and then move around in ways that I can't replicate with a mouse, this game IS WONDERFUL! I love the art style and the fact that you can build a house and upgrade it after you've got all the rooms done. I thought initially that your spider walks all over the screen too much but it turned out that he was actually quick, and has a small jump move. I was a bit concerned about how your spider controlled if you had a monster in there, but it's actually very easy to get around that. You just need to aim well, and as long as you do, you can catch the smaller spiders and leave the bigger ones alone. The way the game works, and the fact that you can turn on/off and change your difficulty level depending on your choice means that you can choose to play when you're at work, or you can play when you're at home. It's not full of unfair short cuts and glitches that make your game play change and not go in the direction that it was intended to be played. It�
